FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

TUESDAY, Dec. 6-6 P. M. On 'Change to-day wheat was firm and moderately active. Cotton was quiet and steady. GOLD WEAK-110% A 1104.

The absence of anything in the Washington docualculated to excite speculative activity was ended to by a sluggish and henvy market in the Gold Room. Moreover, the cable was exclusively ded in transmitting business eastward, and no London or Frankfort quetations were received. large short interest had been formed in anticipation of a vigorous specie-payment report from lative sales were the only obstacle to a further cline than that from 110% to 110%, the highest and west prices of the day. Otherwise the market was weak, on the announcement that our exports for the past week had reached the very heavy mount of over $7,000,000. The course of the market

THE EXPORTS OF THE WEEK. The aggregate amount of experts, exclusive of specie, from the port of New York to foreign ports, for the week ending December 6, 1870, was $7,077,229. FOREIGN ENCHANGE WEAK.

The foreign exchange market was quoted nominally 109 for prime bankers' sixty day sterling and 100% for sight bills, but actual sales out of second hands were made at concessions of % a 8-16 from MONEY FIVE TO SEVEN PER CENT.

The recent activity in money has not been fully maintained, but loans are made in many histances to the stock houses at seven per cent. The quotable rates are six to seven per cent on stocks and five to alx per cent on government bonds. Prime paper is in fair request, and rates range from 6% to 8 per cent for the several grades of first class acceptances. GOVERNMENTS STEADY.

The government list was steady and unchanged. This remark is the most that can be said of the market, for it was otherwise wholly without feature. Prices closed on the street this evening as follows: — United States currency sixes, 110% a 111; United States sixes, 1881, registered, 109% a 110; do. do., coupon, 113% a 113%; do. five-twenties, registered, May and November, 106% a 107; do. do., 1862, coupon, do., 107% a 107%; do. do., 1864, do. do., 106% a 107; de. do., 1865, do. do., 106% a 107; do. do., registered, January and July, 105% a 106; do. do., 1865, coupon do., 109% a 109%; do. do., 1867, Co. do., 109 & a 100%; do. do., 1868, do. do., 109% a 110; do. ten-forties, registered, 106% a 106%; do. do., coupon, 1061/2 a 1061/4. STOCKS WEAK AND LOWER.

The stagnation at the Stock Exchange resulted in a slow decline, which became somewhat rapid late in the afternoon and led to the lowest quotations being made on the sidewalk subsequent to the close of dealings in the Long Room. In a few instances there was exceptional strength and higher prices. The Harlem Railroad Company have declared a semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent, payable December 21, the books closing December 19 and reopening January 4. The directors of the Lake Shore Company have authorized their executive committee to pay a 4 per cent dividend either on December 30 or February 1.

THE COURT HOUSE COMMISSIONERS.

Another Meeting with Closed Doors-What Took Place and How the Commissioners Came Out of the Discussion-The Dome, the Mausard Roof and the Contractor

The Court House Commissioners held another meeting yesterday afternoon. It had been announced the day previous that they would hold a formal meeting on this occasion; but the only visible formallty about it was the fact that it took place behind well-locked doors. The reason for this was the lock and the Commissioners had issued forth. Norton looked rather ruffled, and puffed away at his cigar as though he intended to

PILL THE COURT HOUSE WITH SMOKE on his own account and thus get all the credit of fumigating the concern for the benefit of tax payers. Coman seemed to be perpiexed to an un-usual degree, and after getting out of the room where the meeting had been held mashed his hat down over his eyes and boiled straight out of the building without speaking to anybody although a baker's dozen of "rising politicians" made the most desperate attempts to

as he turned into Chambers st.ect. Even the saintly Walsh, who is popularly supposed to be able to go his way in and out of any crowd without giving the slightest exterior sign of what great thoughts harrow his brain, looked pensive and sad, and he gazed mournfully at Ingersoli as he bade him goodby, and "Jimmy" himself did not appear to be as lively as a Jersey summer cricket by long odes.

"What's up, Alderman," said a friend of the "thunderbolt" as he took him by the arm and made "thunderbolt" as he took him by the arm and made for Breadway; "any thing gone wrong, sa-ay;"
"Wrong!" exclaimed Michael, with a shrug of his big shoulders as he took the eigar out of his mouth with one hand and placed the other on his friend's shoulder, with a force that made the hittle fellow's knees bend suddenly under him. "Wrong! dailyou say; what do you think has occurred?"
"Bless my soul, what is it Mice?"
"You'd like to know, eh?"
"Certainly. Isn't there any chance for me becoming—coming-"None whatever. We've set our foot down, and

"Certainly—Islat the any chance for the seconding—
"None whatever. We've set our foot down, and our friends have to EAT AT THE SAME TABLE with the other folks." The little man turned deadly pale at this, gave Mike a silent shake of the hand and walked away sorrowfully. What the
"PSHOT OF ALL THIS really was it would be hard to tell, but suffice it to say that the meeting of the Commissioners held in the little room opposite Judge Cardozo's was not all one-sided. The four Commissioners were present, but they had not four minds which agreed upon everything, so matters and things which will be made known to the public soon were discussed rather warmly, and certain parties who have made a great deal of money out of the Court House construction were handled without goves. Facts and statistics in reference to these parties were ordered to be collated and properly compiled, and then, when the whole batch has been put in a presentable shape, the public can judge for themselves whether the determined action which the Commissioners intend to take before the end of another week will have been justified by "stern realties." The Commissioners during the meeting, Feberred, in a general way, to the dome and roof questions, and from the drift of the talk that engued upon these important points it is precify certain that they are not so

PLEASEN WITH THE DOME IDEA,
as certain other people are, who would make a great deal of money it it was carried out. One of the Commissioners argued that the dome would cost a great deal of money in the first place, and all of them expressed themselves as of the opinion that, although it would be "a thing of beauty." the expense would not justify them in erecting it. Then, again, during the discussion, it was argued that it would be

by the buildings in Chambers street, the City Hall and the new Post time.

TOTALLY HIDDEN FROM VIEW
by the buildings in Chambers street, the City Hall and the new Post Office, whereas a Mansard roof in its stead would not only lend beauty to the general appearance of the building, but would give additional room for public business. The Comptroller's office, it was remarked, had not accommodation enough now for business, and was ciamoring for elbow room, while even the Commissioners themselves, after hunting about for days for a meeting room, had to content themselves yesterday with a little one generally used as a sort of "tender" to one of the adjoining cours.
